

Congratulations to two junior high school students –Eric Fernandez and Harrison Pelletier—who participated in the Post Standard-WCNY written spelling bee contest at Christian Brothers Academy on Saturday, January 23, 2010. Eric and Harrison competed against 160 spellers from 80 Central New York schools.

Along with 35 other winners, Eric Fernandez, an 8th grader, is advancing to the second round, an oral spelling competition, to be held on February 6. The winner of that competition qualifies to compete in the Scripps National Spelling Bee in May in Washington, D.C. Good Luck Eric!
